35. Which of the following statements comes closer to your view? Statement A. The path America should take is accelerate into the future with a great reset of the system followed by greater nagement from officials – resulting in a universal basic income for all, healthcare for all, and a green new deal. Statement B The path America should take is revisit age-old principles to guide us forward - including giving power back to market forces and away from government regulators, creating an environment for small and mediums sized businesses to flourish, and rebuilding our Main streets.
